

J. 'Gbenga ADEWALE has an advanced university degrees in Educational Evaluation (Ph.D., 1998 and M.Ed., 1991), and B.Ed. in Physics/Mathematics (1988). He is a Research Professor of Science Education and Educational Evaluation at the Institute of Education, University of Ibadan. He is a specialist in Measurement and Evaluation with emphasis in assessment of learning outcomes, psychometrics and ICT. He teaches research design, quantitative and qualitative research methods, statistics and data analysis with the use of computer software. He has teaching and research experience in tertiary institutions for more than thirty years. He is a consultant with the West African Examinations Council (WAEC), National Examinations Council (NECO), Federal Ministry of Education in

Nigeria, UNICEF, World Bank, Lagos State Eko Project, Developing Private Education Nigeria (DEEPEN), Education Sector Support Programme in Nigeria (ESSPIN), British Council, Nigeria, JAMB, TRCN, Catholic Relief Services (CRS); DfID; AfDB. He was an International Consultant at the UNICEF Sao Tome and Principe. He was the Nigeria Representative of the Educational Assessment and Research Network in Africa (EARNiA) now the President of EARNiA. He was the Chairman of Board of Governors of the University of Ibadan Staff School, immediate past Director of the Institute of Education, University of Ibadan and Chairman School Governing Board of Abadina College, University of Ibadan. You can have more information using:

<https://ie.ui.edu.ng/sites/default/files/PROF%20ADEWALE%27S%20CV.pdf>